Message from the President

As the leaves begin to turn and winter approaches, it is time to plan to attend the Alumni Conference in Williamsburg on December 8, 2018, at the newly renovated Clarion Hotel. Dave Copley has worked hard to set up yet another excellent conference. The spring and summer conferences were well-received, the accommodations were great, and the food was exceptional. Please check your calendar and register today for the winter conference. Wintertime in Williamsburg is always exciting, especially as the holidays approach. The Grand Illumination will take place the weekend before we arrive, so Colonial Williamsburg will welcome our Alumni with holiday lights and decorations. The Williamsburg Outlet Mall and Williamsburg Pottery are only a short distance from the Clarion, making shopping convenient for those Christmas gifts/purchases. Merchants Square is also a great place to browse among the many shops.

Many work hours are required to make the Alumni conferences successful. Dave and MK Copley invest a great amount of time planning /visiting the venues, reviewing contracts, and many other tasks prior to the conference. The day of the conference, they make sure the members and their guests have plenty to eat and drink during the afternoon. Phyllis Allgood works diligently to ensure all reservations are complete and payments are made in a timely manner. She has also been known to bring some extra goodies for the Hospitality Room! John O'Neil did a great job behind the bar while Joyce O'Neil and Ellin McCulloch spent hours "policing" the room and helping MK keep the trays filled. Many thanks go out to these individuals along with several others that I'm sure I've missed. Without these workers stepping up and going the extra distance, the conferences would not be possible. Board members work throughout the year keeping records, preparing minutes, planning the conferences, updating the Directory, putting out the VSPA Grapevine, and many other duties. Please take a few minutes to say thank you to all those you see working to make your/our weekend a pleasurable one.

We look forward to seeing you all in Williamsburg.

Art King, President
